Death of Capt. Horace Austin {Robert p. 43} one of the most remarkable characters that ever lived here, and that means much, for from first to last there have been many remarkable men that called this little town home. Born 3 Sept, 1815 Meadville, PA; d. Feb. 1903. Son of Rufus and Eleanor Austin. m(1) 1840 Mary Ann LaDue of N.Y.C., who d. 1853, left two daughters, Martha and Harriet. m(2) 1855 Laura Reed of Ohio, d. Feb. 5, 1900 Baxter Springs, KS.

In the Florida War, caused by the attempt to move the Seminole Indians from Florida to the Seminole Territory, he was a member of Co. J., First U.S. Art. and served five years. This was lasted from 1835 to 1842, and Capt. Austin was mustered out on account of disabilities (he was shot in several different places).

After the Battle of Tustigua, at Jupiter Inlet in FL. On one occasion during this time he was beleaguered with some companions in a block house, and their stock of provisions ran out. After going without food many days some of his companions gnawed the ends of their fingers in their frantic attempts to allay hunger. At length on a certain day he informed his companions that when night came he would make an effort to get away, as it meant death to remain and there was some slight chance of escape. That night all left, and before getting far they found an alligator which they were forced to kill without making much noise and ate the entire carcass raw.

After many dangers and hardships and much effort they at length reached the coast and friends. This is only one of the many experiences of Capt. Austin.

Mr. Austin was a member of the Masonic Fraternity for more than 50 years. {Richard p. 194}

Gen. Dict. of the First Settlers of New England, Three Generations of those who came before May 1692 by James Savage, 1860

Joseph Clark son of William of the same m. Ruth, dau. of Jared Spencer, had William, Joseph, Daniel, John, Catherine, and Hannah, says Goodwin, but no date of marriage, birth, or death of any of these could he give.

Jared Spencer Gerret, Garade, or Garrett, Cambridge, 1634, removed to Lynn, freeman 9 Mar. 1637, in March 1639 had gr. of the ferry at Lynn, removed to Hadham before 1660, was propound. for freeman of CT, 1672, was Ens. of the militia, rep. 1674 and 1674, had w. Hannah, sons John, Thomas, Samuel, William, Nathaniel, Timothy, and daughter Hannah whom, after 1665 Daniel Brainard, grandfather of the celebrated Missionary to the Indians, Mehitable m. Daniel Cone, Alice m. early in 1682 John Kennard, and next John Turner, and Ruth m. Joseph Clark and he died 1685.

John Spencer, East Greenwich, in his later days had brought family to that town, and in the record we find "Thomas the seventh son of John and Susannah Spencer was born in E.G. 22 July 1679 about 5 o'clock in the morning; and was the first English child born there. But he had lived in some part of the Colony a dozen years before he was freeman 1668, yet since no trace of him is earlier seen, or any report of progenet, my conjecture is that he is one of the few that came over after the restoration of Charles II and had w. and some children soon after. Perhaps his w. was daughter of John Greene the sec.[Second] of Warwick. He had sec. wife and died 1684, as the will made by the town government, mentioned her and the children in the orders probably of age, John, Michael, Benjamin, William, Robert, Abner, Thomas, Peleg, and Susannah.

Michael, Cambridge 1634, brother of Jared the first, removed to Lynn 1637, freeman Mar. 1638, m. the widow of Thomas Robbins of Salem, and died 1653 leaving two children, perhaps by a former wife: Susannah b. 1643, who m. 1 Aug. 1664 Daniel Bacon of Salem, and Michael, then aged 6 yrs, who under care of his grandfather Robbins became a shipwright and lived in Cambridge it is said in 1670 there

m. Rebecca, dau. of Thomas Sweetman.

Porter claims the elder Michael as an inhabitant of Hartford, on Mill St. 1645; but I conjecture that his eye mistook Mr. for his name.

Richard Sweet, Westerly, son prob. of John, m. 15 Dec. 1673 perhaps Mehitable, dau. of Edward Larkin the first of the name, and probably for second wife had Priscilla, dau. of sec. William Carpenter of Rehoboth.

Thomas Sweetman, Cambridge, freeman 2 May 1638 by wife Isabel had:

Elizabeth, b. 6 Jan. 1647

Rebecca, 7 Apr. 1649

Mehitable, a. 1650

Sarah, 2 May 1654

Thomas, 18 Jan. 1656, died unbaptized in a few days

El Dorado, AR, April 9, 1957

Mrs. Janet Austin Curtis, Secretary, Austin Family Assn. of America, Williamsburg, VA

Dear Mrs. Curtis,

Your address has come to me through Mr. Frank Morgan of El Dorado, Arkansas, who is a genealogist, and who knows I am interested in Austin Family History and Genealogy. I am writing to you, asking you to tell me about your organization of Austin Family Association of America. I would like to work with you if there is an opportunity for mutual benefit. I would like to know all I can find about Austin history, and would gladly share with you anything I have.

I am Myrtle House Watson (Mrs.), El Dorado, Arkansas. My father was Milton C. House of Cabarrus County, North Carolina, whose moter was Mary Caroline Austin, also of Cabarrus County, NC. Mary Caroline Austin, born in 1825, was a daughter of Jonathan, a son of Bryant Austin, one of the original Austins who came into North Carolina (probably from Ireland) sometime before the Revolution. My grandfather, John Wiley House, born in 1817, married Mary Caroline Austin. I am trying to write a History and Genealogy of our North Carolina Austins and their allied families, just for the benefit of our own family. I need all the help I can get. I am glad to help some one else wherever I can.

I will appreciate a letter from you.

Very Sincerely Yours, Mrs. Myrtle House Watson, 921 West Faulkner St., El Dorado, AR.

P.S. - I would like to know about your pottery. Do you make pottery for sale? Do you have a catalogue? Maybe I could sell a consignment. M.W.
