NOTE: Helen Austin, Mar 27, 2010. DAWES CARD 5099. Packet.: Stewart says he does not know the first name of his father. His father was just called Austin. Stewart b 1881, says that he lived all of his life in Neshoba Co, MS, in the community called Coffadeliah, MS near the present day community of Philadelphia, MS. He says his mother's name is Sealy or Choctaw name is Pis-ah-ho-le-moh. His sister is Alice Austin b 1890 MS. He has a brother is John Long who lives with Ed Henson. A study of the 1900, 1880 and 1870 census of that location shows several families with the surname of Stewart, Seale, and Long, but no Austins. There is a possibility that his father was from the Stewart family. Since the father was only known by his son, by the name of Austin and he died when Stewart was only three years old, it is not surprising that Stewart knew very little about him. His father was estimated by Stewart to have been born about 1836 and he died about 1884 at age 48. Stewart's mother, Sealy died abt 1896, at age 60, with an estimated birth date of 1836. The interrogator of the Dawes Commission observed that Stewart did have the appearance of a full blood Choctaw Indian and spoke fluent Choctaw language.
